NOTHING LIKE IT

Its peculiar efficacy is due as much to the process and skill in compounding as to the ingredients themselves. Take it in time. It checks diseases in the outset, or if they be advanced will prove a potent cure.

No Home should be Without It.

It takes the place of a doctor and costly prescriptions. All who lead sedentary lives will find it the best preventive of and cure for Indigestion, Constipation, Headache, Biliousness, Piles and Mental Depression. No loss of time, no interference with business while taking. For children it is most innocent and harmless. No danger from exposure after taking. Cures Colic, Diarrhœa, Bowel Complaints, Feverishness and Feverish Colds. Invalids and delicate persons will find it the mildest Aperient and Tonic they can use. A little taken at night insures refreshing sleep and a natural evacuation of the bowels. A little taken in the morning sharpens the appetite, cleanses the stomach and sweetens the breath.

FOR WHOSE BENEFIT

A PHYSICIAN'S OPINION.

"I have been practicing medicine for twenty years and have never been able to put up a vegetable compound that would, like Simmons Liver Regulator, promptly and effectively move the Liver to action, and at the same time aid (instead of weakening) the digestive and assimilative powers of the system."

PIANOS.

GAINED FIRST PREMIUM FOR GREATEST merit at the New Orleans Cotton Centennial and WORLD'S Expos'n, for refined and wonderful power of tone, elegance of design, and superb finish. Only piano endorsed by United States commissioners, from each of the States. Cases finest carved, rosewood finish finest imported double repeating action—three strings throughout of best patent steel wire—keys best ivory. Our new patent steel tuning device, instead of wood, is the greatest invention ever made in pianos. It consists of stationary STEEL tuning pins that are set in a mold and molten STEEL is run round the pins keeping them solidly in place. A thimble or shell pin is made to exactly fit the stationary pin revolving therein; thus the strings wind round the pins. After the strings are properly stretched the piano can never get out of tune, the rest plank being of STEEL not affected by extremes of climate. This will be appreciated by all musicians in city or country. It will stand twenty years without tuning and is good for 100. No other piano has this improvement.

Great strength and durability is another advantage. In other pianos holes are bored in wooden boards and tuning pins inserted. The pins turn round in this board and cannot stand permanently in tune, and it often cracks, splits, drys out, becoming utterly, totally and entirely worthless as a musical instrument. Our STEEL tuning device is in no way affected by such casualities, and the sounding board is so constructed that our pianos can never become thin or metallic in tone. They are always in tune and the expense of tunning is saved. This patent alone is worth millions and makes our piano the greatest in the world. Prices are no higher than other pianos. Buying direct from us, the largest manufacturers, you save $100 or $200—dealers' profits. Don't mind the ominous growlings of dealers and agents, who see their chances of selling a poor piano at a big profit of $200—slipping away—pity them.

We guarantee our pianos ten years. 200 styles. We have put our prices at lowest bed-rock for Cash.

A $600 Piano for $259.50 ; a $900 Piano for $297 50 ; a $1200 Piano for $375.50 ; a $1500 Piano for $475.50.

Upright Cabinet Grands, with stool and rubber cover shipped on board cars at S. F., to any part of the United States, Canada or Mexico. Our terms are cash with order. If not as represented money returned. We occassionally have good second-hand pianos, made over at $100 to $300, which we take in part payment for our own. Write or call for catalogue, free.

PANDORA'S OPAL.

When Hope was left to muse alone
Within Pandora's box deserted,
Whence all the other sprites had flown,
The world was sadly disconcerted.

And more than all the luckless maid,
Whose eager hand had wrought such folly,
Beside the box sat idly stayed
And yielded to her melancholy.

But while her tears, unhindered, flowed,
Impatient Hope, alone, unheeded,
Begged freedom from her strait abode
With promises of comfort needed.

Pandora yielded, raised the lid,
And gentle Hope spread wings of pity,
And by the kindly deeds she did
Cheered young and old, in field and city.

But ere abroad she took her flight,
Beside the maid she lingered, sighing,
In pity o'er a tear drop bright,
That on her slender hand was lying.

Her fluttering wings of myriad tints
Hung o'er the drop, and when she vanished
An opal, in the sunlight's glint,
Lay shining, and the tear was banished.

And so, through all the changing years
An opal speaks to us of sorrow,
But yet of hope that stills our tears
And bids us wait a brighter morrow.
—Helen Martin in Providence Journal.

Not a Home for Invalids.

To be plain, the City of Mexico is not the proper place for a prolonged sojourn of invalid tourists. The robust can do very well here for a few weeks, but even they would enjoy the winter weeks in lower level towns like Aguas Calientes, Guadalajara, or little towns like Orizaba or Cuernavaca. Here it is impossible to have a fire in your hotel room, as such a thing is absolutely unknown. A lamp will, it is true, heat a room sufficiently to take off the chill, but this is not the way for an invalid to live. There are cities and towns here where no need of a fire will be felt the winter through. For those of us residents who have gone through the not wholly comfortable process of acclimatization and are fairly robust, a winter is quite a different thing. Its cold is gently bracing, the appetite, never sharp in tropical latitudes, picks up a bit, and one goes about his business with more energy. But I defy any man or woman of northern blood to live here a few years and have that vitality, that certain vigor, that one possesses in ruder climes to the northward. There are some correspondents who ask if a stay in this city "would be beneficial for persons addicted with rheumatism?" Decidedly not. Anywhere in the country but in this ancient town, builded on a swamp and utterly un drained.—Cor. Boston Herald.

It Was a Pretty Foot.

The funniest incident of my trip was in a sleeping car. It was in the morning, when the passengers had got out of their berths, and only several sets of curtains were drawn in front of still slumberous persons. Suddenly a foot was thrust out between two curtains. It was small, white and symmetrical—not more than a feminine number three—and the merest bit of ankle in sight looked soft and fine. The men glanced at it from the corners of their wicked eyes. The women deprecated the exposure. Then a bold, brazen fellow went right straight to the pretty foot, grabbed the ankle, and flung the whole member rudely into the berth.

"He wouldn't treat his bride so," said a woman close by. "It must be his sister."

Then the head of a 10-year-old urchin emerged where the foot had been, and a sleepy, angry, boyish voice said: "Look here, Sam, you let me alone. Next time you ketch hold of my foot that way I'll kick the gizzard out of you."

There was a subsidence of sentimental interest and a risibility of mirth.—Cincinnati Enquirer.

Not an Unlucky Number.

The following curious story serves as an illustration: "A soldier in the time of William and Mary was tried by a court martial on a charge of having fallen asleep at midnight when on duty upon the terrace at Windsor. He denied the charge, and solemnly declared (as a proof of his having been awake at the time) that he heard St. Paul's clock strike thirteen. While under sentence of death affidavits were made by several persons that the clock actually did strike thirteen instead of twelve; whereupon he received his majesty's pardon." This statement was engraved upon the coffin plate of the old soldier.—Magazine of American History.

Durham Mustard.

Mustard was little known at English tables until 1729, when a Mrs. Clements, residing in Durham, began to grind the seed in a mill, and to pass the flour through several processes necessary to free it from the husks. She kept her secret to herself for many years, during which she sold large quantities of mustard throughout the country, but especially in London. Here it was introduced to the royal table, where it received the approval of George I. From the circumstance of Mrs. Clements being a resident at Durham it obtained the name of Durham mustard.—San Francisco Argonaut.

Pathetic Even if Humorous.

There is almost as much pathos as humor in the following story of an Albany boy of tender years: Shortly after his mother's death, he, with his father, visited her grave, being carried there by a horse which his father had recently bought. The father, standing apart from the grave, was naturally in a contemplative frame of mind, and the boy, being unable to stand the oppressive silence any longer, lifted his childish voice and said: "Ma, we've got a new horse."—Portland (Ore.) News.

Stand for Truth.

I am neither author nor factor of any sect. I will have no man addict himself to me; but if I have anything right, defend it as truth's, not mine, save as it conduceth to a common good. It profits not me to have any man fence or fight for me, to flourish or take my side. Stand for truth and 'tis enough.—Ben Jonson.

READING CHARACTER.

The Wonderful Gift of a Bright, Sweet, Vivacious Young Woman.

"O, uncle," said the dear, vivacious girl, "I've got something I want to tell you so much!"

"All right, Isabel, all right; go ahead and tell it," and he beamed on his niece a fond, fatherly gaze.

"It's about your character; I know it just as well as if I had known you a long time, and here this is the first day I ever saw you!"

"O, I suppose your father—"

"No, no one ever told me a word. I read it in your handwriting. You know I have learned to read character in writing, and so I read yours and know it perfectly."

"Indeed?"

"O, yes. Isn't it nice? Yes, you see I got a couple of your business letters to papa down at the office, and your character was just as clear to me as could be. Your down strokes indicate great force and decision, and your capitals are large, which show lofty imagination. Then all the way through your writing I could detect great benevolence and love of doing good?"

"Er—um," said the old man as he rubbed his head. "Well?"

"Then your 'R's' and 'B's' and 'P's' show great fancy and love of the beautiful; and the decided full-stop indicates that you have no fickleness about you; and the line of writing inclines up slightly, which means loftiness of aim and a high purpose in life."

"Hah! Any thing more?"

"O, yes; your 'M's' and 'W's' readily tell that you have a fine poetical and artistic feeling, and your 'D's' and 'S's' are exactly like those of the most celebrated musicians; then I should judge that you were largely endowed with reverence and the love of truth; and also had excellent judgment and a well-balanced mind."

"Mebby! That all?"

"No, I read lots more. You have a strong love of home and family, which shows in your small letters; and the way you round all your characters indicates much ability for organization as well as great business aptitude; the way you dot your 'i's' shows liberality and desire to give every man his due; a certain unevenness to some letters indicates humor and originality combined with hearty good fellowship; and you cross your 't's' so near like all great orators and statesmen that I really wonder you have never entered public life and got into Congress."

"Hey? Hey? Go on!"

"Well, I don't think of much more just now, except that your signature seemed to me to vary rather more than the body of your writing than most people's; but that, I suppose, is because you have to write it so often. I thought I detected a little stubbornness in it, as well as a shade of bigotry, and some indications of a high and quick temper, and perhaps a little that would indicate a lack of appreciation of other people's accomplishments, with a faint touch of combativeness and inability to grasp new ideas. But, then, that's nothing. O, I do want to show you the lovely Christmas present papa gave mamma," and she tripped away with an engaging smile.

"Isn't it truly wonderful," said Isabel's young man, who sat across the room on the edge of the sofa, "how Miss Isabel can read character from handwriting? Really surprising!"

"Y-a-e-s—y-a-e-s," said the old man; "y-a-e-s, very wonderful, remarkably surprising! The dodgastedest wonderfullest thing I ever saw!" And the old man got up and glared over his spectacles after his hat. "Y-a-e-s, dummed surprising, I must say! I hire a slimpsy-legged, shallow-minded young man that looks some like you, and pay him eight dollars a week to write all my business letters, and all I ever do is to sign my name to 'em! O, yes, awful wonderful!" And he went out the front door and nearly sprained his foot in boarding a street-car, and ripped and swore under his breath till he scared off two lady passengers.—F. H. Carruth, in Chicago Tribune.

Washington Society Note.

The following schedule of rates, evidently the property of some correspondent-lady who writes letters from Washington about society ladies, has been handed in to this office by the finder, and the owner can have it on application:

Saying a lady is a favorite in society		$1
" " is beautiful and accomplished
" " looks like Mrs. Cleveland		2
" " is a charming hostess
" " is immensely wealthy		10
" " is of old family
" " wears Worth dresses		3
" " received with Mrs. Whitney		1
" " has an exquisite complexion
" " has a wealth of golden hair
" " has limpid eyes
" " has aristocratic hand and foot
" " has a sweet disposition
" " has a distingue air
" " has a queenly grace		1
" " entertains royally
" " is in the White House set		5

At this point the schedule was torn in half, and we regret that we are unable to fill out the bill for the further edification and guidance of our readers.—Washington Critic.

—Mother (to her boy, Bobby, who has been caught fighting in the street)—"He hit you first, did he? Well, you shouldn't have struck him back. Don't you remember the Bible says: 'If he smite thee on one cheek turn to him the other, also?'" Bobby—"Yes, ma, but what's a feller goin' to do when he gets hit on the nose?"—Texas Siftings.

—The cold wave flag carries a black lozenge in the center. This is for bronchitis.—Augusta Chronicle.

PERSONAL AND IMPERSONAL.

—A babe was seriously poisoned at Santa Barbara, Cal., by sucking a green veil that was used for the purpose of screening the cradle.

—Mrs. Mary Colby, of Vienna, Me., although seventy-four years old, has just personally worked out her road tax of four dollars.—Boston Post.

—Captain Ericsson, of monitor fame, though long past eighty years of age, spends an hour or two each day in gymnastic exercises.—N. Y. Tribune.

—Victoria Schilling, who eloped with her father's coachman, appears thin and anxious. She gets sixty dollars a week for singing at the Casino in New York.—N. Y. Herald.

—Dr. Beard used to say that American men were constantly haunted by three questions: "How can I make money?" "Who will be the next President?" and "Where shall I go when I die?"

—The inhabitants of Maine are not deteriorating physically, judging from the graduating class at the Nichols Latin school at Lewiston. The seven young men who compose it average six feet in height.

—There are two Dr. Holmes now. While Oliver Wendell Holmes has been decorated with LL. D. from all the English and Scotch universities, his son, Oliver Wendell Holmes, Jr., the Boston Judge, has received the same degree from Yale College.

—A little news-boy of Orlando, Fla., being suddenly told of his father's death, dropped his papers and hurried home. A citizen, picking them up, sold them through the town, telling the circumstances, and realized seventy dollars, some of them fetching five dollars apiece.

—Mr. Frank Miller, the manager of D. O. Mills' bank, Sacramento, has returned home from a trip around the world. His wife, who accompanied him on his tour, died in Ceylon, and to add to his affliction he was not allowed to bring her remains away from that country. Mrs. Miller was a general favorite in society, both at her own home and at San Francisco.—Chicago Journal.

—If Florida has many more boys like Mortimer and Roland Bunting, of Madison, her future is assured. These little fellows—they are thirteen and eleven years old—have this year rented twelve acres of land and planted it with corn and cotton, have worked the crops carefully, and have good prospects of an abundant yield. This besides raising enough vegetables to supply the large family of their father, who is an invalid.—Chicago Times.

—While the masons were laying the foundations of a new chapel in Montreal, a fashionably-dressed lady requested one of the workmen to lend her his trowel for a moment. He at once complied, when the lady took a good-sized stone and fixed it in the wall with mortar, having previously placed under it a mysterious paper, which is supposed to contain a prayer for some special mercy which she wishes to obtain.—Montreal Witness.

—It is told in Waterbury, Conn., that a well-known business man of that town prepared to build a handsome dwelling, and awarded the contracts. During the recent kirmess there his fortune was told by one of the alleged gypsies, who warned him to give up the project, else death would claim him. If the house should not be built long life and happiness awaited him. Next day the merchant withdrew the contract, and nothing further has been done about building the new house.

FAT PEOPLE AND FLUIDS.

What Has Been Recommended to the Victims of Obesity—A Warning.

The question whether water is fattening or otherwise has been much discussed. Formerly it was generally asserted that the victims of obesity should mortify the flesh and reduce the fat by abstaining as much as possible from liquids and remaining in a continual state of thirst. Latterly the opposite has been affirmed, and I am told that a reduction of weight is one of the results claimed by "the hot water cure," provided always the water is taken as hot as possible, painfully hot, and in great quantities. Experiments have been made in Paris by Dr. Debove which controvert both these doctrines.

These experiments indicate that, provided the same amount of solid food is taken, large quantities of water make a man neither thinner nor fatter. They were carefully made on a friend who took weighed quantities of food daily, and while these remained equal doubling the quantity of water had no measurable effect on the weight of the body. Still, it is quite possible that the old theory of thirst cure and the new theory of hot water cure may both be correct. Both violate the natural conditions of health. Scalding hot water, like tea or coffee, or grog of similar temperature, unquestionably injures the teeth, stomach, and other organs concerned in the early stages of digestion, and it is very probable that deficiency of liquid impedes the latter stages, whereby the chyme, by the aid of the digesting fluids, becomes converted into chyle and blood.

A fat man may easily become thinner by injuring his health. "Banting" is dangerous, as many who have fairly tried can prove. The difficult problem is to reduce the fat without reducing the strength at the same time. A skillful trainer will undertake to bring any man down to his "fighting weight," i. e., to the best condition for violent exertion, but as soon as the discipline of the trainer is relaxed the obesity, when constitutional, returns, and a long continuance of high training is murderous. Perhaps the old prescription, "Keep your mouth shut and your eyes open," when followed with judicious limitations, is the best. Eat less, sleep less, and walk more are safe injunctions, provided they are obeyed in moderation. The fat man who uses malt liquor as a daily beverage deserves to be buried under cross roads at midnight, according to the ancient modes of degrading the willful perpetrators of felo de se.—W. Mattieu Williams in Gentleman's Magazine.

AN ADVANCE IN WINE.

Within the last two weeks there has been a gradual upward tendency in the price of wine and at present the advance on last year's prices is 20 per cent. The reason of this advance is the shortness of the crop of the present season, which will hardly come up to 9,000,000 gallons—some authorities say 12,000,000, which latter estimate is too high. The causes which have operated to lessen the product this year are numerous. The black pest in Southern California, which has almost decimated the vineyards in in that section of the State, and the early rains in Northern California, which put a stop to wine-making in the midst of the vintage and materially reduced the product in Sonoma and Napa counties, are the principal causes. And last but not least, the excellence of this season's vintage can also be set down as one of the reasons for the advance in prices. In years past "my friend the enemy" in the shape of commissions, self-styled viticultural organs, et hoc genus omne, have done more injury to the industry by forcing prices down while pretending to keep them up, than many a producer is aware of. This, together with a full average vintage for several successive years, made the dealer master of the situation until the lessened product of this season forced him to offer the producer, if not a fair price for his wine at least a considerable advance on the ruinously low rates that have prevailed for the past eighteen months. There is food for thought in this. It is but another argument that producers should organize for self-protection and endeavor to formulate some plan for holding their wines until such a time when prices will justify their selling. Until they do this the wine question, in so far as their interests are concerned, will remained unsolved.

JEFFERSON DAVIS, ex-President of the Confederate States of America, died at New Orleans yesterday morning, aged 81 years. He was a son-in-law of ex-President Taylor, and during his eventful career as civilian and soldier, held many prominent positions of public trust. He was a firm believer in the States Right doctrine, and from the close of the war until the time of his death refused to take the oath of allegiance to the United States Government. For the past twenty-five years he has been virtually a man without a country—a sad broken down old man, a victim of the fortunes of war.

Bald-Headed People are Not to Read This.

ED. INDEX-TRIBUNE: Your columns have, from time to time, contained much valuable information of especial interest to people who, like myself, have been denuded of their hirsute and capillary coverings by reason of early piety and other causes, and it is with a view of adding my mite to the amelioration of the condition of this large portion of our population that I send you a communication from the Secretary of our sister society at Glen Ellen, on this important subject.

I disclaim any intention or desire of detracting from the merits of the valuable restorers lately discovered by residents of this valley. The letter is as follows. I suppress names:

BACILLI ON A BALD HEAD.

Dr. Saymonne claims to have isolated a bacillus, called by him, bacillus crinivorax, which is the cause of alopecia. It is, he says, found only on the scalp of men, the fur of animals being free from it. The bacalli invades the hair follicles and make the hairs very brittle, so that they break off close to the skin. Then the roots themselves are attacked. If the microbes can be destroyed early in the disease, the vitality of the hairs may be preserved, but after the follicles are invaded and all their structures are injured the baldness is incurable. The following is Dr. Saymonne's remedy to prevent baldness: Ten parts crude cod liver oil, ten parts of the expressed juice of onions and five parts of mucilage or the yolk of an egg are thoroughly shaken together, and the mixture applied to the scalp and well rubbed in once a week. This, he asserts will certainly bring back the hair if the roots are not already destroyed, but the application of the remedy, must be very distressing to the patient's friends and neighbors. — Medical Record.

Board of Supervisors.

MONDAY, December 2d.

The Board of Supervisors met in regular monthly session Monday morning. Chairman Allen being absent, Mr. Cady was elected to the chair.

Nearly the whole session was occupied in the consideration of Road Overseers' reports. Following is a list of the ones received and the bills allowed: A. K. Bell, Healdsburg road district, $151.61; W. T. Harris, Washington, $253.75; James Patrick, Knights Valley, $86.70; Charles Fairclo, Sebastopol, $157.43; John Johnson, Bloomfield, $86.70; Gallant Rains, Petaluma, $320; C. Y. Caldwell, Santa Rosa, $167; H. A. Russell, Russian River, $617.29; C. E. Roseborough, Cloverdale, $93; S. Varner, Redwood, $31.60.

On motion of Mr. Smith, the sum of $31.50 was ordered transferred from the general road fund to the fund of Redwood road district.

The monthly report of the County Horticultural Commission was submitted. The report was placed on file.

Contracts for furnishing supplies to the County Farm and Hospital for the three months ending March 31, 1890, were awarded as follows: J. W. Gray, beef, mutton and pork; Wilson & Serr, flour, butter, cube sugar, cracked wheat, syrup; B. M. Spencer, flour, rolled oats, beans, salt salmon, potatoes, crackers; Hayes & Kopf, flour, soap; Bryant & Campbell, rice, butter, salt and coffee.

TUESDAY, December 3d.

The District Attorney was authorized to institute proceedings to procure the right-of-way for the Stewart's Point and Skaggs' Springs road over the lands of Geo. Haigh.

In the matter of the bounty ordinance, repealed several months ago, the Board having been petitioned by a number of farmers to re-enact a bounty law, the subject was taken up for consideration. Several well known ranchers were present and urged upon the Board the necessity of protecting the sheep from the onslaught of coyotes in particular.

After due consideration, Ordinance No. 20, establishing a bounty of $15 for coyotes, was offered by Mr. Davis and was unanimously adopted.

The balance of the session was devoted to the consideration of bills.

SCROFULA SINCE CHILDHOOD.

After Being Treated by Eminent Physicians he is Cured by S. S. S.

The following is an extract taken from a letter received from T. A. Sizemore, of Piedmont, S. C., and written under the date of November 6, 1888:

"I am twenty-eight years old and from the time I was seven years old until 1885, I suffered with a severe case of scrofula. During that time I took every known remedy, but to no purpose. My father took me to North Carolina, where I was put under the treatment of an eminent physician. The medicines given had only a temporary effect, for shortly after my return the scrofula broke out in a more malignant form and I was worse off than ever before.

"In 1885 I discontinued all other medicines and commenced taking Swift's Specific (S. S. S.) I took a number of bottles and it cured me. I have been free from scrofula from that time until now."

Attacked by Rheumatism.

I have been selling Swift's Specific (S. S. S.) since 1878, during which time I might name a great number of very remarkable cures that it has effected. One in particular, was a person who was attacked with rheumatism. He took hundreds of dollars worth of other medicines without receiving any benefit. He was at length happily and permanently cured after using a few bottles of Swift's Specific (S. S. S.) W. T. SHANE, Druggist, Solomon City, Kansas.

THE effect produced by Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. Colds, Coughs, Croup, and Sore Throat are, in most cases, immediately relieved by the use of this wonderful remedy. It strengthens the vocal organs, allays irritation, and prevents the inroads of Consumption; in every stage of that dread disease, Ayer's Cherry Pectoral relieves coughing and induces refreshing rest.

"I have used Ayer's Cherry Pectoral in my family for thirty years and have always found it the best remedy for croup, to which complaint my children have been subject."—Capt. U. Carley, Brooklyn, N. Y.

"From an experience of over thirty years in the sale of proprietary medicines, I feel justified in recommending Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. One of the best recommendations of the Pectoral is the enduring quality of its popularity, it being more salable now than it was twenty-five years ago, when its great success was considered marvelous."—R. S. Drake, M. D., Beliot, Kans.

"My little sister, four years of age, was so ill from bronchitis that we had almost given up hope of her recovery. Our family physician, a skilful man and of large experience, pronounced it useless to give her any more medicine; saying that he had done all it was possible to do, and we must prepare for the worst. As a last resort, we determined to try Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, and I can truly say, with the most happy results. After taking a few doses she seemed to breathe easier, and, within a week, was out of danger. We continued giving the Pectoral until satisfied she was entirely well. This has given me unbounded faith in the preparation, and I recommend it confidently to my customers."—C. O. Lepper, Druggist, Fort Wayne, Ind.

They have been steady bearers for years.

The Native Daughters of Sonoma will give a grand masquerade ball at Union Hall on the evening of St. Valentine's Day, February 14th. It was the original intention of the ladies to give an entertainment on New Year's Eve, but they generously gave way to the Firemen, who will give their second annual ball on the latter evening.

Notwithstanding the heavy rains of the past two months the main traveled roads in this valley are in excellent condition. H. Allen Mathews of the San Francisco Bicycle Club, who has traveled extensively on his wheel, says that the roads in this section, taking them all in all, are as good as any he has come across in his travels in this State.

Chinese are engaged in grubbing out a large block of three-year-old vines on the Hearst place bordering on the Santa Rosa road. The vines look strong and healthy and are evidently being removed to give place to something that pays better than wine grapes, which were so low this season that the amount received per ton barely paid the cost of cultivation, picking and hauling.

August Schweickhardt, proprietor of the German bakery, deserves much praise for his enterprise and good taste. His new bakery building, both inside and out, is a credit to the town and a decided improvement on the old building destroyed by the recent fire. The interior is handsomely papered and fitted up with becoming counters, show-cases and shelves, and is partitioned off into several rooms, two of which will be used for ice cream parlors.

Go to the Sonoma House for fisrt class accommodations. M. A. Flynn, proprietor. *

The Cork Tree.

The Santa Rosa Republican and and Petaluma Imprint are boasting of the only cork trees in the county. The latter claims two for its city and the former one. On the John Harper place near Sonoma four cork trees have been growing for over a quarter of a century. These trees, which are very large for their species, were planted in 1858 by Judge Bright, a former owner, from acorns or seeds sent him by the Department of Agriculture, Washington. Cork from the trees was exhibited at the Mechanics' Institute by the Sonoma Valley Exhibit Committee in 1887, and attracted considerable attention. The trees take kindly to our soil and climate, and as the bark is very valuable when converted into corks it is a wonder that more attention has not been given to the cultivation of this profitable tree.

Officers Elected.

Juanita Parlor, No. 20, N. D. G. W., elected the following officers last Tuesday to serve for the ensuing term: Miss Teresa Goess, President; Mrs. Walter Bordwell, First Vice; Mrs. C. H. Wise, Second Vice; Mrs. Harvey Manuel, Third Vice; Miss May Powell, Rec. Sec; Mrs. H. H. Granice, Financial Secretary; Mrs. Wm. Green, Treasurer; Maria Kenney, Marshal. Trustees, Miss Amalia Ehrlich and Miss Bertie Sydnor.

Sonoma Parlor, No. 111, N. S. G. W., held its semi-annual election for officers last Monday with the following result. Walter T. Bordwell, President; W. Ellis, First Vice; F. F. Ewell, Second Vice; T. Ellis, Marshal; T. F. Monahan, Financial Secretary.

Rainfall to Date.

The rainfall for the season up to date is unprecedented. The precipitation as indicated by the rain guage at the residence of Robt. Hall, U. S. Signal Service Observer at this place, is as follows:

MONTH.	INCHES.
October	9.09
November	4.36
December (up to 8 A. M. Thursday)	1.34
Total	14.79

For the same period last year the rainfall was 6.22 inches. At the time of going to press (4 P. M. Friday), it is still storming with no indications of clearing up.

Surveyors at Work.

Chief Engineer Zook of the San Francisco and North Pacific Railway, with a couple of assistants, has been engaged the past three days in re-surveying a route for the proposed broad guage road between Sears' Point and Shellville. He has also been looking over the ground for right of way through the northern part of town, which has been promised by our citizens in consideration of the road running through Sonoma.

Blockmakers Again in Dsmand.

The basalt block business has commenced to look up this week. About sixty men are employed in the Schocken quarries and twenty-five in Pinelli's. Both quarries are short handed and are employing at remunerative wages all block makers applying for work. The blocks being turned out by the above quaries are to fill several large contracts made with Stockton and San Francisco parties.

Prompt Payment.

Mrs. E. Heydt of this place received $2,000 life insurance this week from the A. O. U. W., of which order her deceased husband was a member. When we take into consideration the fact that Mr. Heydt had paid into the society as assessments and dues less than $250, and that it is but thirty-two days since he died, the merits of the order as a life insurance organization can be readily seen.

The Prince of Liars.

The people of Sonoma profess much indignation at the appearance in San Francisco papers of ridiculous stories about tragic deaths, sensational episodes and fabulous discoveries of gas wells in that valley. It looked for a while as if the prince of liars had taken up his abode in that charming retreat.—Santa Rosa Democrat.

Is It True?

There is complaint that the new saloon ordinance is being violated. It is said that all the saloons do not close at 10:30 P. M. as required by law. Whether this be true or not we are not prepared to state, but we do know that the ordinance should be stricty enforced or else repealed.

The Fireman's Ball.

The Firemen have engaged Union Hall for New Years Eve and will give their second annual ball on that evening. Prof. Hahn's full orchestra has been engaged for the occasion. It is the intention of the company to make this ball the event of the holiday season.

Commendable.

All claims not consistent with the high character of Syrup of Figs are purposely avoided by the Cal. Fig Company. It acts gently on the kidneys, liver and bowels, cleansing the system effectually, but it is not a cure all and makes no pretensions that every bottle will not substantiate.

THE DONAHUE ROAD.

A Chance of Sonoma's Retaining It if Her Citizens

All Work Together and with a Will.

The proposition made by the citizens of Sonoma to the San Francisco and North Pacific Railway Company (the Donahne system), promising the company right of way through the town north of the present narrow guage track for a broad or standard guage road, has been duly considered by the company. At this time it is not safe to predict whether the narrow guage track will be abandoned or not. That question, in a great measure is for the people of Sonoma to determine, particularly those who have property and business interests in the town. That the Donahue people are friendly disposed towards the old town does not admit of a doubt, but when it comes to building and operating railroads there should be a substantial friendly disposition evinced on the other side. It is true that the Donahue people are considering a proposition made by the Southern Pacific Company to run over its track from Shellville to Santa Rosa. Should this proposition be accepted instead of that made last week by our citizens the road bed from Shellville to Glen Ellen would be abandoned, and thus Sonoma would be left out in the cold. It is to guard against any such misfortune that efforts are now making to influence the Donahue people to stand by us. If the property-owners of Sonoma will act in accord in this matter and each contribute toward securing the promised right of way, we have more than an even chance of holding our own. This is a matter which every citizen of Sonoma should take a deep interest in. The time has now arrived for action. It is "root hog or die." For our own part we prefer to see the town root and endeavor to retain the Donahue Railway system to the end that the dying act may be dispensed with.

The report of the Secretary of the Board of Health was read, and on motion received and placed on file.

The Street Committee reported verbally that they had staked off the western line of Second Street East.

The following bills were allowed and ordered paid:

The petition of John Tivnen and seven others was, on motion of Trustee Poppe, granted, and it was resolved that the work as prayed for be performed as soon as other work already in progress is completed.

On motion of Trustee Poppe, the petition of the Sonoma Valley Bank and thirty-six others, praying for the apointment of a night watchman, was received and placed on file to be taken up at a future time.

The ordinance introduced by Trustee Poppe on November 6th, amending the Health Ordinance was passed and approved as amended by striking out in Section 1, the words "of the President."

D. D. Davisson then addressed the Board, stating that the flagstaff in the northeast corner of the Plaza was obstructed by high piles of paving blocks, preventing persons having free access thereto when they wanted to raise the national flag. Trustee Poppe moved, that the Street Committee be instructed to cause the owner of said blocks to remove the same from within fifty feet of the flagstaff and see to it that the ground be not occupied again. So ordered.

The petition of the Christian Advent Church, presented before the Board at the special meeting November 9th, was not granted for several reasons.

The sum of $25 was appropriated for improving the street near the Ryan place. The Street Committee was instructed to look after the pool or pools of water near the places of H. H. Davis and R. B. Lyon, and have the water drained off. J. Fochetti objected to the mode of altering Second Street East between Napa and Spain streets, and asked that said street be re-established according to the original survey.

On motion of Trustee Poppe the consideration of what kind of fire hose shall be adopted was laid over, to be considered in executive session. After discussion of the matter by members of the Board and members of fire companies present, the Board went into executive session. It was moved by Trustee Poppe, that the President of the Board be authorized to buy 400 feet of "Paragon" fire hose at a price or sum not to exceed 85 cents per foot, including couplings. So ordered.

It was further moved by Trustee Wegner that the Clerk be instructed to advertise for bids for a hose cart to be built in Sonoma and in a substantial manner. Bidders to make their own specification and to file their bids with the Clerk, before December 14, 1889, at one o'clock, P. M., said hose cart to carry 500 feet of hose. So ordered.

No further business appearing the Board adjourned.

THE WIND.

I saw you toss the kites on high
And blow the birds about the sky;
And all around I heard you pass,
Like ladies' skirts across the grass—
O wind, a blowing all day long,
O wind, that sings so loud a song!

I saw the different things you did,
But always you yourself you hid.
I felt you push, I heard you call
I could not see yourself at all—
O wind, a blowing all day long,
O wind, that sings so loud a song!

O, you, that are so strong and cold,
O blower, are you young or old?
Are you a beast of field and tree,
Or just a stronger child than me?
O wind, a blowing all day long,
O wind, that sings so loud a song!

—Robert Louis Stevenson.

The Good Which Rats Do.

Though the rat is a despised animal, yet he is a useful servant to man, for the animal lives in and near human habitations and eats every particle of refuse and filth that he can get at. He is the only animal which can thrive and keep a clean coat in the most filthy localities, where the air would be fatal to any other creature. Rats are almost incessantly licking their fur to keep it clean and, though they doubtless become a nuisance in many instances and places, yet they after all perform great service for mankind, especially in cities, by cleaning up every edible thing that would eventually become a source of noisome odors and of disease.—Good Housekeeping.

A Strange Malady.

Legrand writes on "Narcolepsy" in the current number of The France Medicale. This consists in sudden attacks of deep sleep lasting some minutes; not days like a trance or seconds like petit mal. Moreover, the condition is one apparently of simple sleep, from which the patient may easily be aroused. Brain congestion resulting from deficient heart action, gastric troubles or derangements of the liver, and such diseases as gout, diabetes and rheumatism, are some of its associations. The fat boy Joe of the "Pickwick Papers" will occur to the reader as a typical case of narcolepsy, associated with "gastric trouble."—Paris Figaro.

Symbol of the Sun.

"Nature" gives us a curious explanation of the flat pieces of iron, five or six inches long and shaped like a letter S, which are occasionally seen on the walls of old brick houses. This is said to be an ancient symbol of the sun. They say in rural parts of England that it protects the house from fire. The same sign was on old official seals in Sicily and the Isle of Man and elsewhere. You may even trace it back to Asia, and to an era before history. The curious part of it is that such habits should so long survive the superstition, and Asiatic myths be written on Yankee walls.—Globe-Democrat.

A Cheap Battery.

The Electrical World mentions a cheap and effective battery made by dissolving common soap in boiling water and adding to it small amounts of bran and caustic potash of soda. This mixture, while warm, is poured into a jar containing a large carbon pole and an amalgamated zinc rod. When cold the battery "sets" after the manner of a jelly, and consequently will not readily evaporate or spill over.—St. Louis Republican.

For Testing the Eyesight.

The "opsiomter" is a new instrument for testing the eyesight. It consists of a mahogany case with two front eyeholes, behind which are two traveling bands mounted on rollers. These bands have holes in which different lenses are fitted, and the person whose sight is to be tested looks through the holes and lenses at printed matter behind.—Public Opinion.

How to Pronounce "Goethe."

It is said that the literary people of Chicago are divided into three hostile camps over the question how Goethe's name should be pronounced. One faction says it should rhyme with "teeth," another maintains that it should rhyme with "dirty," while still another asserts that it should rhyme with "eighty."—New York Tribune.

Pure Water for Plants.

Persons whose plants mysteriously sicken and die are warned by Dr. J. W. L. Thudicum, in a communication to the London Society of Arts, that only pure water must be used in watering them. Impure water breeds a sort of fungus at the roots, which soon destroys them.—Chicago Times.

The Name "Assassins."

The name assassins was applied to a tribe or clan called Ismaelians, who settled in the mountains of Lebanon about 1090 and became notorious for their murderous propensities; hence the origin of the name as applied to murderers.—Boston Budget.

Silk for Steam Pipes.

Careful experiments have shown that waste silk is the most effective of all non-conducting coverings for steam pipes, and the demand for this purpose promises to be great, notwithstanding the high price.—Arkansaw Traveler.

When Chased by Bloodhounds.

If you are ever chased by bloodhounds it may be well to know that sheets of tissue paper placed on the ground under the feet and then removed, carry with them every trace of the scent.—New York Sun.

The Verdict Unanimous.

W. D. Sult, Druggist, Bippus, Ind., testifies: "I can recommend Electric Bitters as the very best remedy. Every bottle sold has given relief in every case. One man took six bottles, and was cured of Rheumatism of 10 years' standing." Abraham Hare, druggist, Bellville, Ohio, affirms: The best selling medicine I have ever handled in my twenty years experience, is Electric Bitters." Thousands of others have added their testimony, so that the verdict is unanimous that Electric Bitters do cure all diseases of the Liver, Kidneys or Blood. Only a half Dollar a bottle at E. Wegner's drug store.

A Woman's Discovery

"Another wonderful discovery has been made and that too by a lady in this county. Disease fastened its clutches upon her and for seven years she withstood its severest tests, but her vital organs were undermined and death seemed imminent. For three months she coughed incessantly and could not sleep. She bought of us a bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption and was so much relieved on taking first dose that she slept all night and with one bottle has been miraculously cured. Her name is Mrs. Luther Lutz." Thus write W. C. Hamrick & Co., of Shelby, N. C. Get free trial bottle at E. Wegner's drug store.

CUPID'S HARNESS.

Most women naturally look forward to matrimony as their proper sphere in life, but they should constantly bear in mind that a fair, rosy face, bright eyes, and a healthy, well-developed form, are the best passports to a happy marriage. All those wasting disorders, weaknesses, and functional irregularities peculiar to their sex, destroy beauty and attractiveness and make life miserable. An unfailing specific for these maladies is to be found in Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It is the only medicine for women, sold by druggists, under a positive guarantee from the manufacturers, that it will give satisfaction in every case, or money will be refunded. This guarantee has been printed on the bottle-wrappers, and faithfully carried out for many years. $1.00 per Bottle, or Six Bottles for $5.00.
